SUB: REQUEST FOR INFRASTRUCTURE & LOGISTICS SUPPORT IN ADDITIONAL BUILDING OF THE SUPREME COURT PREMISES

Respected Sir,

We would like to bring to your attention that while the 'D' Block of the Additional Building at the Supreme Court premises has been constructed and is now functional for members of the Bar, there are a few additional requirements that would make the block more accessible and better suited to the needs of all concerned.

As per the discussions with various members and suggestions in this regard, the following facilities for which designated areas have been earmarked while construction are yet to be provided/begin in the 'D' Block of the Additional Building, require immediate attention :-

- (i) Library with all commentaries, subscriptions, and bare acts along with a Photocopy Machine.
- (ii) Designated space for the Typing pool where the typists can sit and be easily accessible.
- (iii) Bar Lounges for Advocates with Display Boards to sit and work or take a breather in between matters and client meetings.
- (iv) Gym with TT Table for recreational purposes; and
- (v) Tea/Coffee Machines at designated areas for ease of members and litigants.

All these facilities, which are currently available in the main Supreme Court compound and for which suitable places have been identified and earmarked in the 'D' Block, would greatly enhance the efficiency and comfort of members, their staff, and litigants in the 'D' Block. Their inclusion in the ample space available in the Additional Building would prevent the waste of valuable time and resources, leading to a more productive and conducive environment.

We believe that the above proposal aligns with the vision of the Supreme Court and the needs of its members. We hope that the concerned committee, including yourself, will find favour with this request and consider it at the earliest feasible.

We greatly appreciate your time and consideration in this matter, and we look forward to a positive response that will benefit all stakeholders involved.

Thanking You

Regards
