Shri Atul Madhukar Kurhekar,
Secretary General,
Supreme Court of India,
New Delhi – 110 001

Date: 11.06.2024

SUB: RECALL OF CIRCULAR DATED 11.06.2024

Respected Sir,

Several concerns were earlier raised by the Executive Committee of the SCAORA, regarding the listing of matters before the Hon'ble Supreme Court during the ongoing Summer Vacations, 2024 and wherein certain emergent directions were solicited from your end to the Registry, to ensure that while the matters are taken up by the respective Benches in the Summer Vacation, no member of the Bar faces any inconvenience as well, and the listing of matters and their adjudication is streamlined for all concerned.

However, a Notice dated 11.06.2024 has been issued today stating that Fresh Bail Matters and Transfer Petitions verified till 10.06.2024 will be listed before the Vacation Bench in the remaining part of the Summer Vacations and also those fresh Bail matters and Transfer Petitions which may henceforth be verified during the summer vacations will also be listed during the summer vacations. This decision will surely cause enormous inconvenience to all members of the bar.

It is reiterated that most of the members of the bar have planned their family trip for the summer break in line with the dates of the vacation bench list and are in their home town and therefore any listing of matters without a letter of urgency will cause unnecessary stress and inconvenience to the lawyers.

As a matter of fact, most of the members of the bar have left for their home town, therefore it is neither feasible nor practical to issue such changes in the middle of the summer vacations.

You are therefore kindly requested to recall the Circular dated 11.06.2024 at the earliest.

Thanking you in anticipation.
