Ref. No. 53/ SCAORA /2024

To,
Shri Atul Madhukar Kurhekar,
Secretary General,
Supreme Court of India,
New Delhi – 110 001

Subject- Regarding inviting applications for the formulation of the Supreme Court panel for Amicus Curie.

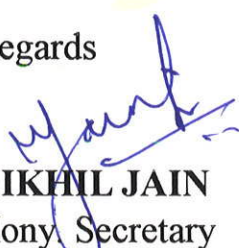

Respected Sir,

The Legal Aid provided under the aegis of the Supreme Court is not only welcomed by litigants from various parts of the country but is also an integral part of the practice of all our members, who strive to assist this court in this regard.

However, it is brought to your notice that the panel earlier constituted expired on 31st March 2022, and while a notice was issued on 20th October, 2022 directing formulation of a fresh panel, the same did not materialise.

Considering there are several members of the bar, including newly designated Senior Advocates who are keen to join the panel and provide their legal services, it is required that the competent authority may consider it expedient to invite fresh applications for the formulation of the Supreme Court panel concerning the Amicus Curie.

Regards

NIKHIL JAIN
